

SRFI Code of Conduct

Article 1. General

A. Introduction

The purpose of this code is to ensure the orderly and fair administration and conduct of SRFI sanctioned tournaments. The SRFI Code of Conduct is designed to secure the future well-being of Squash. Different aspects of the Code may have relevance to Hosts as well as players, managers, officials, spectators and administrators (hereinafter called Individuals) involved in a squash championship. The Code applies to all these categories and should be understood by all concerned with competitive squash.

The SRFI Code of Conduct will constitute the basis for disciplinary action against any Indian individual. As determined by the SRFI committee, SRFI may also agree to uphold any disciplinary action taken by a WSF, PSA, ASF or an international recognised sporting committee.

Where a player's offence(s) is particularly harmful to the success of a tournament, SRFI or the sport of squash, the player may be found in violation of Article 6. Player Major Offences.

Where a player violates the SRFI Code of Conduct on multiple occasions, regardless of severity, they may also be found in violation of Article 6. Player Major Offences.

All fines are to be paid in Indian Rupees (INR). SRFI also issue suspended fines which will be held on a player's record for 12 calendar months from the date of issue. Any other breach of the SRFI Code of Conduct within the next 12 months will mean the player is liable for any suspended fines and any further fines issued by the disciplinary committee.

The SRFI reserves the right to modify the Code of Conduct at their discretion.

B. Spot Fines

Denoted with an asterisk (*), a spot fine will be imposed immediately by SRFI for a breach of the Code of Conduct. Spot fines cannot be appealed through the SRFI Disciplinary Committee, but exceptional circumstances may be considered by SRFI. The normal appeals route still applies.

C. Offences

The different Offences are defined below. Fines must be paid within 30 days of receipt of invoice or as designated on the invoice.

Article 2. Professional Behaviour

SRFI members must conform to the highest standards of professional conduct at all times.

A. Unprofessional Conduct

Players shall at all times conduct themselves in a professional manner and give due regard to the authority of officials and the rights of opponents, spectators, SRFI staff and others. Violation of this shall subject an individual to a Grade 1 offence.

For the purpose of this rule, unprofessional conduct is defined as any misconduct by an individual that is clearly abusive or detrimental to SRFI, officials, opponents and/or the sport of squash, but that does not fall within the prohibition of any specific offence contained herein.

B. Public Relations

No player or official of the SRFI shall at any time give, make, issue, authorise or endorse any public statement which will have, or design to have, an effect prejudicial or detrimental to the best interests of the SRFI or the sport of squash. Violation of this shall subject an individual to a Grade 1 offence.

C. Public Communications

All SRFI players are required to refrain from publishing any information before official SRFI communication is released, relating to, but not limited to the following:

- Any withdrawal from a tournament
- Any disciplinary matter

- SRFI Tour tournament news, such as new SRFI tournament.
Violation of this shall subject an individual to a Grade 1 offence.

D. Social Media Code All individuals are bound by the particulars of the SRFI Social Media Code of Conduct as detailed below. Breach of the Social Media Code of Conduct will result in disciplinary action being taken against an individual at the discretion of the SRFI Committee. No person subject to the SRFI Social Media Code of Conduct shall publish or cause to be published (by whatsoever medium);

Criticism of the character of a tournament referee or official or criticism of the manner in which an official has handled a match in which the player has taken part, or any other game under the control of the SRFI. Criticism of SRFI tournaments based on location, prize money, directors, staffing or any other element which can be interpreted as having a negative reputational impact on the prestige of the tournament in question.

Discriminatory or prejudicial comments about any individual involved in SRFI Championships, be it players, administrators, volunteers or staff, based on the grounds of age, ethnicity, gender, disability, religion, sexual orientation or race or any other comments which may be interpreted as bullying or victimising. Comments which can be interpreted as bringing the SRFI, an individual tournament or the sport of squash, into disrepute.

^For the purpose of this document the term social network site refers to, but is not limited to; Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, Google+ and LinkedIn.

Any breach of this shall subject an individual to a Grade 2 offence.

Article 3. Player Commitment and Entry Offences

Entry Obligations: No player confirmed in a draw may withdraw after the withdrawal deadline or not appear at the tournament without penalty as described below. SRFI shall make such investigation as is reasonable to determine the facts regarding any such entry offence and, upon determining that a violation has occurred, shall specify the penalty and/or fine.

A. Withdrawals***

Any withdrawal by the player will be penalised as per the SRFI Guidelines.

B. Playing Another Tournament

No player who has entered and been accepted into draw of SRFI National Circuit tournaments shall play in any other squash tournament during the period of such tournament, without the express written consent of the SRFI.

This rule still applies should a player withdraw from a SRFI tournament.

In addition, where this is a first-time offence, the player will also be withdrawn from the tournament in which they are highest placed. For subsequent offences, the player will be withdrawn from both overlapping tournaments and prevented from entering overlapping tournaments for a period of 12 months thereafter. Violation of this shall subject an individual to a Grade 1 offence.

C. Playing a Rival Tour

No player will play in a rival tour whilst he is a member of the SRFI. A rival tour is a tour, championship or series of tournaments that the SRFI consider may damage or affect the good standing of the SRFI, its members and own tour. Violation of this shall subject an individual to a Grade 5 offence.

D. Mandatory Tournament Appearance

No player who is obligated to play in a specific SRFI tournament as outlined in the SRFI Championship Guidelines shall withdraw from such a tournament without consent from SRFI. Violation of this shall subject an individual to a Grade 4 offence.

E. Cumulative Off-Site Offences*

Violation of this section shall subject an individual to a Grade 5 offence.

Article 7. Discipline

A. The SRFI shall be entitled to request that an individual gives an explanation of any matters or circumstances, which the SRFI considers may constitute a breach of the code on the part of a member. Such request will specify the matters or circumstances that the SRFI considers may constitute such a breach.

B. A member shall deposit a written explanation (electronic or postal letter) to the SRFI at the association's office or, by mutual agreement between the member and the SRFI, shall give an oral explanation to the SRFI within ten days of receipt of such a request.

C. If, after consideration of any such explanation or if no explanation is received within the period of 10 days referred to in (b), the SRFI is of the opinion that the matters or circumstances concerned constitute a breach of the code on the part of such member the SRFI may, subject to (e) below, resolve:

That such member be disciplined in accordance with the code or that the membership of such member shall be suspended or terminated.

D. Without prejudice the SRFI may delegate its powers under (a) and (b) above to a committee which will consider any explanation under (b) above, will consider whether there has been a breach of the code by the member and will decide what action, if any, to take against the member, all in the form of a recommendation to the SRFI.

E. The SRFI shall be entitled, subject to the procedure described in Article 7, but otherwise in its absolute discretion and in such manner as it thinks fit, to notify the members of the federation of the decision under (c) above; and in addition the SRFI shall be entitled, in its absolute discretion and in such manner as it thinks fit, to notify or cause to be notified the public or any person, authority, body, commission or enquiry before which the association has power to represent the interests of its members of any such decision.

F. SRFI SRFI shall use its best efforts to make its decision under (c) above within 30 days of the expiration of such 10-day period set forth in (b) above. Within seven days after making such decision, the SRFI shall notify the member concerned of such decision and of the grounds upon which it has been made by written notice sent by hand, email or by registered post. Such decision shall be brought into effect at the expiration of 15 days from the date on which, in all the circumstances prevailing at the time, such notice would reasonably be expected to have been delivered to the member unless an appeal has been lodged by the member within such 15-day period in accordance with paragraph (g) below.

G. Any individual who is to be disciplined in accordance with the code or whose membership of the federation is to be suspended or terminated at the expiration of the 15-day period referred to in (f) above may appeal against such decision to a tribunal to be appointed in accordance with Article 8 (b) provided that such appeal is made within such 15-day period.

H. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the SRFI may make by-laws, rules or regulations in relation to the code and circuit rules.

Article 8. Appeals

Any person who wishes to exercise a right of appeal given by these articles shall notify the SRFI of their desire within the 15-day period for appeal. The notice of appeal shall be in writing signed by or on behalf of the appellant and indicate the grounds on which the appeal is made and must be delivered to the association's office.

Article 9. Notice

Any written communication required or sent to the SRFI should be addressed as follows, unless notice of change is subsequently published:

SRFI Code of General Conduct & Ethics

The purpose of this code is to ensure professional conduct from all individuals involved with SRFI and its tournaments and promote a safe, inclusive and positive environment for all participants in squash. This SRFI Code of General Conduct & Ethics applies not only to participants in SRFI tournaments, but also to all members of player support teams (including but not limited to: coaches, parents and medical professionals), all SRFI staff and all other tournament support staff, whether acting in a paid or voluntary capacity, regardless of by whom they are employed.

All members of player support teams and tournament personnel will, at all times:

- Abide by the rules set forth in the SRFI Guidelines
- Conduct themselves in a professional manner and give due regard to the authority of officials and the rights of athletes, spectators, SRFI staff and others
- Conduct themselves in a manner that takes all reasonable measures to protect their own safety and the safety of others
- Act with integrity and set a positive example, promoting the reputation of the sport and taking all possible steps to prevent it from being brought into disrepute
- Never use inappropriate language or gestures
- Treat all individuals at SRFI tournaments equally; with respect and dignity, and without discrimination or prejudice on grounds of age, gender, sexual, cultural, ethnic, disability, lifestyle or religious preference
- Maintain clear boundaries between personal and professional life
- When providing a service, only do so within the limits of their professional competence
- When providing a service to children seek written consent from their parent or legal guardian and ensure the environment is fit for purpose
- Refrain from making inappropriate physical contact with children or vulnerable adults and avoid being alone with them unless this is required as part of an organised activity
- Be committed to anti-corruption within the sport and thus be bound by the WSF rules for the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions. It is the responsibility of all participants to make themselves aware of the code. Violation of this code shall subject the player to the WSF Disciplinary Procedure and the range of permissible sanctions.

Health Professionals

This is not a substitute for any professional code that exists within medical disciplines and should be used to complement such codes where they exist. All medical professionals must adhere to the above code. Additionally, they must:

- Work within the limits of their professional competence and scope of practice, and ensure they hold appropriate qualifications
- Ensure that they have the appropriate professional and/or institutional indemnity when providing services both in their own country and abroad
- Keep their professional knowledge and skills up to date
- Keep accurate and clear notes that are stored appropriately to maintain patient confidentiality
- Make the athlete's health and welfare their primary concern, always acting in their best interests
- Respect the athlete's right to self-determination when recommending a service but, where there is risk, ensure that you raise any professional concerns where appropriate
- Obtain consent from an athlete before disclosure of their medical information to a third party
- Be aware of legal obligations, including safeguarding procedures and national and international anti-doping regulations, as well as how to escalate concerns relating to abuse or anti-doping infringements
- Not abuse their position of authority to make financial, sexual, or improper emotional relationships
- Ensure that the environment that you are working in is fit for purpose and meets the minimum standards of any regulatory or external authority in this area, documenting and escalating any concerns to SRFI President if you feel the athlete's safety to be compromised by the facilities, equipment or access to/organisation of medical provision
- Ensure that an athlete can dress/undress in a suitable private space and that a chaperone can be made available on request
- When providing a service to an athlete under 18 years of age seek written consent from their parent or legal guardian.

Coaches

All coaches must adhere to the above code. Additionally, they must:

- Work within the limits of their professional competence and ensure they hold appropriate accredited qualifications
- Ensure that they have the appropriate professional and/or institutional indemnity when providing services both in their own country and abroad
- Treat all children and athletes fairly and with respect
- Realise their responsibility as a role model and set positive examples for others

- Always act in the child or athlete's best interest and respect their right to self-determination with regard to training and playing squash
- Accept officials' decisions and do not go on court or interfere with matches
- When providing a service to an athlete under 18 years of age seek written consent from their parent or legal guardian
- Be aware of legal obligations, including safeguarding procedures and national and international anti-doping regulations, as well as how to escalate concerns relating to abuse or anti-doping infringements
- Not abuse their position of authority to make financial, sexual, or improper emotional relationships including, but not limited to, refraining from having a relationship with anyone under 18 for whom they are coaching or responsible for.

Referees

All referees must adhere to the above code. Additionally, they must:

- Work within the limits of their professional competence and ensure they are kept abreast of rule changes and updates within the rules of squash
- Treat all children and athletes fairly and with respect
- Realise their responsibility as a role model and set positive examples for others
- Act with integrity, honesty and objectivity at all times when officiating
- Have regard for protecting the players through the application of the rules of the game
- Ensure all junior athletes (U19) wear mandatory eye guard protection
- Be aware of legal obligations, including safeguarding procedures and national and international anti-doping regulations, as well as how to escalate concerns relating to abuse or anti-doping infringements
- Not abuse their position of authority to make financial, sexual, or improper emotional relationships

Tournament Hosts

Tournament hosts are often SRFI's main on-site contact for a SRFI sanctioned tournament. In this regard, SRFI are heavily reliant on the tournament promoter to ensure SRFI's Code of General Conduct & Ethics is implemented and followed for player support teams and all tournament personnel. All tournament promoters must adhere to the above code and tournament conditions and commitment outlined in the SRFI Guidelines. Additionally, they should be aware that they are responsible for the on-site tournament operations, including but not limited to:

- Undertaking due diligence checks for tournament personnel, hosts and medical professionals which may include background checks
- Ensuring appropriate risk assessments, health and safety policies and insurance policies are in place for the duration of their tournament
- Making all tournament personnel aware of SRFI's Code of General Conduct & Ethics and other policies associated with this (Safeguarding, WADA Anti-Doping, Data Protection)
- Reporting any concerns regarding children or athletes to SRFI and the appropriate bodies immediately.

Appeal Process

Decisions made by the SRFI President may be appealed. The accused must make their appeal within 15 days of receipt of the SRFI President's decision. The SRFI committee shall decide whether to review the appeal based solely on the President's investigation or whether to hold a hearing in which the accused will be given the opportunity to present their views directly to the SRFI committee.

The SRFI committee's decision will be final and cannot be appealed.
